

Women Who Dared is dedicated to recognizing and honoring women who have taken a personal risk that furthered the advancement of equal opportunity and status for women.

Submission Instructions

To nominate a woman to be honored by the Women Who Dared organization please follow these instructions:

- Submission should explain how the nominated woman has taken a personal risk that furthered the advancement of equal opportunity and status for women
- Submissions can be for living or deceased women, and can be submitted by the nominee. Nominees can be from any part of the U.S.
- Include any supporting material (articles, photos, testimonials, etc.). Do not include any originals, submissions are not returned.

Please print clearly

Name of Nominee

Any other names used by the Nominee

Current Address (include city, state and zip code)

Email

Phone Number

If nominee is deceased, list a family member to contact:

Name of Family Member

Current Address (include city, state and zip code)

Email

Phone Number

Person submitting nomination:

Name

Current Address (include city, state and zip code)

Email

Phone Number

Attach typewritten description of how the nominated woman has taken a personal risk that furthered the advancement of equal opportunity for women.

Submissions are reviewed by the Women Who Dared board of directors. Submissions are checked for accuracy as much as possible. Accepted nominees will have their story included on the Women Who Dared website. They will also receive a Women Who Dared Gratitude Award Certificate.

Mail submissions to:
Women Who Dared
2024A Jack Street
Fairbanks, AK 99709

Email submissions or submit questions to Diann at:
womenwhodared.org@gmail.com

www.womenwhodared.org